

ENERGY POLICY

Sustainable development has recently been a topic which is of high importance. Using energy in the most effective possible way and applying systems which can utilize renewable energy sources are inseparable parts of this very much actual topic.

Musashi Hungary Manufacturing Ltd. is committed to improving the energy management performance of those facilities it operates, in terms of both of its natural gas and electricity consumption. The commitment of our company is illustrated by the implementation and maintaining of ISO 50001, customized to the profile our company.

In order to act in accordance with the above mentioned commitment we have been continuously keeping track of the rules and regulations related to energy consumption and efficiency, thus meeting the relevant law and other regulations.

We have been striving for the continuous improvement of our energy performance by meeting and supervising our set efficiency targets and we ensure the necessary information and resources for this.

We are bond to introduce solutions which are up-to-date and energy-effective in production technology.

In case of carrying out new investment or purchasing transactions, before realization we put special focus on reducing our energy consumption, on effective energy utilization and, where it is possible, on applying renewable energy source as part of the decision making process.

Musashi Hungary Manufacturing Ltd. is open to welcome its employees' proposals in connection with improving our performance.

Ercsi, 29. September 2026.

Szilárd Gelányi
Managing director